SAMUEL AYERS.

FORMERLY OF DANVILLE, KENTUCKY.
WATCH MAKER.

Successor to B. F. Meek, Main Street, Frankfort, Ky., continues the watch repairing business at the old stand. By promptness and careful work he hopes to merit the patronage of those who desire to have their watches repaired without damage being done them. Surveyors' compasses repaired and other instruments requiring delicate and accurate adjustment.

In retiring from business in Frankfort I take pleasure in expressing my entire confidence in Mr. S. Ayers, and from my long acquaintance with him as a workman, do not hesitate to commend him as every way capable of meeting the expectation of my former patrons.

B. F. MEEK.

Sept. 30-tf

E. E. Winters, Covington, Ky., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters cured me of a pain in the chest caused by indigestion."

Mrs. Mary Havercraft has moved into her handsome new residence on Third street.

Fall and winter suits made up in the latest and most approved style at Berberich's on short notice.

Mrs. M. H. Stout has removed from her late residence on Third and Steele streets, South Side, to Mrs. Gay's property, on Broadway, opposite the Depot.

A party of twenty or thirty young ladies from Texas, Arkansas, and other Southern States passed up on yesterday morning's train bound for Millersburg, where they will attend school.

The Knights of Pythias will have a grand time in Louisville at the meeting of the Grand Lodge next week. The Lodge in this city has suspended, but Mr. W. S. Sattell, Grand Master at Arms, will attend, having united with a Lodge in Louisville.

Royal Templars, Attention.

There will be a meeting of Frankfort Council, No. 7, at the photograph gallery of Mr. H. G. Mattern on Monday evening, September 17th, at 7 1/2 o'clock. Business of great importance requires the presence of every member.

The Resurrection of the Whisky.

While the court-house was being built in 1870, Judge J. M. Elliott, then Circuit Judge of this district, and Thomas H. Probert, Jailor of this county, procured a bottle of whisky, and had one Jerry Downing, a brick-layer who was working on the house, place it in the wall at the northeast corner. One day last week Downing came here and took the bottle out in the presence of a few spectators. The whisky was taken to Judge Hazelrigg's office, where a number of gentlemen tasted and tested it. The whisky was made by Howard Barnes & Co., and Probert said it was four years old when put in the wall, so it is now seventeen years old. It was clear as water, and tasted like new whisky. Being confined in the wall, air tight, age had not improved its flavor. Elliott and Probert are both dead, some years since, and Downing alone knew of the hiding of the bottle.—Mt. Sterling Sentinel.

Antioch.

Mr. Hunter went to Benson last Saturday. Wherefore?

Miss Lilly Goin spent last week in Louisville, taking in the exposition.

Mrs. Emma Hawkins, of Henry county, is visiting her father, Geo. Roach.

Mrs. Butler Gloré has been very sick, but we are pleased to learn is now improving.

Something should be done about repairing the school-house before the bad weather sets in.

Rev. Polk South commenced a series of meetings last Sunday night at Antioch Church.

Mr. Wm. Polsgrove has erected a frame barn on his place, which will be a good one when finished.

Mr. Wm. Masters, who has been confined to his bed for a week or more, we are glad to know is better.

Mr. James Gloré and his daughter, Miss Loree, attended the meeting at Pleasant Ridge last Sunday.

Mr. Finny Bryant living out on the ridge road, lost his house and all its contents by fire last Monday morning.

Who has the appointing of the delegates for Franklin county to the Educational Convention to meet in Louisville on the 19th?

Is there no law to stop the reckless riding and driving on the pike? It is a wonder that some of the school children have not been injured by it.

Mr. R. J. Shannon is building a large tobacco barn, wagon-house, stable and granary combined. Mr. Simon Harper general superintendent.

And now the sorghum mill has begun its same old tune. Mrs. Sally Stivers commenced last Tuesday. Oh! woe the little ones be stuck up.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. John Stivers is confined to her bed. Also that Mrs. Sheets, formerly of this neighborhood, now of Benson, was very sick last week.

Mr. Hi Penn, while on his way to Frankfort last Monday, when near Mr. Butler Gloré's, the horse he was driving fell to his knees, cutting them badly, so much so that he was forced to return home with it.

Some one or more persons made a raid on Messrs. Goin and Jenkins' watermelon patch on Saturday, the 1st of September, and completely ruined it. They have the names of the parties, and it is said the next Grand Jury will investigate the matter.

At the singing last Sunday evening, Mr. Hunter was compelled to stop, on account of the disorderly conduct of a few "would be noticed ones." If such characters cannot behave themselves in public, their parents had better keep them at home, for fear of the law.

The young folks of this neighborhood had a fine time last week. Tuesday the inauguration, Wednesday night singing at the school-house, Thursday night singing at Mr. James Rossell's, and Friday night the debate; and this week meeting every night at Antioch Church.

The Point Pleasant debaters were greeted with a large and intelligent audience on the night of the 7th. The school-room was decorated with evergreens; a large wreath hung on the wall back of the speaker's stand, while in front of the stand, suspended from the ceiling, was a large cross, all the work of the young ladies attending Mr. Hunter's school.

Cliff Roberts and family have moved to Lexington, where he has a position of yard master in the Cincinnati Southern yard.

Judge W. L. Pence went to Lexington yesterday on business. He reports his new yard there as doing an immense business.

Mr. Robt. Sanford has the contract to build an office for Dr. R. W. Deakins at Sweet Home. He will begin work Monday.

Mr. Jno. L. Ziegler arrived home Thursday evening from Texarkana, Texas, where he has had charge of a large saw-mill for a year or more.

Mrs. Edna Grinstead, who has been quite sick for a week, is some better now. Mr. Late Thompson has charge of her grocery during her illness.

The Fannie Freese cannot come further up the river than Lock No. 2, on account of low water. She is doing a large business between there and Louisville.

Miss Carrie Lee Sanders, of Bridgeport, who has been visiting her cousins, Misses E. Maud and Jennie Zook, returned home Friday accompanied by Miss Jennie.

The Champion Saw-mill's branch yard in Lexington has the contract for furnishing the lumber to rebuild the stables of the City Railway that burned Wednesday night.

Oh! how refreshing it is when asking one of our moneyed real estate citizens to subscribe to the school-house and chapel to receive a reply redolent with euphony. Not a cent, sir. Not a copper.

The school Trustees have bought from Mr. John W. Gault his lot on the corner of Wilson and Bosworth streets and intend to commence at once the erection of a building that will answer the purposes of a chapel and an academy.

No matter how jaded the constitution may be from disease or excess, the Great German Invigorator restores it permanently. See advertisement. For sale by Joe LeCompte.
